

Like the TV show The Amazing Race, teams of two will compete in 6 legs over the course of one evening and one day. Each leg will include a roadblock, a detour and a pit stop, where team(s) will be eliminated.

There is no running involved/allowed; however there are other fun ways of getting around from challenge to challenge.

The race will begin on Friday, July 27 at 6:30 pm with two legs of the race being completed on Friday night. Saturday, July 28, the remaining teams will compete in the last four legs, with the top three teams racing for the finish.

You must be 13 or older to participate. Teenagers between the ages of (13-16) must compete with an adult.

The cost is $10/person with a BBQ at the finish. Any non-teams can purchase BBQ items on Saturday night.

Sign up at the Municipal Office by Friday, July 20, 2012

Prizes to be determined.

Like the TV show The Amazing Race, teams of two will compete in 6 legs over the course of one evening and one day. Each leg will include a roadblock, a detour and a pit stop, where team(s) will be eliminated.

There is no running involved/allowed; however there are other fun ways of getting around from challenge to challenge.

The race will begin on Friday, July 27 at 6:30 pm with two legs of the race being completed on Friday night. Saturday, July 28, the remaining teams will compete in the last four legs, with the top three teams racing for the finish.

You must be 13 or older to participate. Teenagers between the ages of (13-16) must compete with an adult.

The cost is $10/person with a BBQ at the finish. Any non-teams can purchase BBQ items on Saturday night.

Sign up at the Municipal Office by Friday, July 20, 2012

Prizes to be determined.